

Foreign Service Officer Test (FSOT)

Posted: January 6, 2011

The computer-based Foreign Service Officer exam will be offered in Lima on Wednesday, February 9, 2011. If all of the February 9 seats are taken; there will be a second test date on Thursday, February 10. All testing sessions in Lima will be in the afternoon on the date specified.

The registration deadline for overseas test centers is Monday, January 24, 2011. Candidates may complete their registration packages clicking here and will receive notification from ACT that they are qualified to schedule their tests. Test applicants may then schedule their tests by going to the internet address provided by ACT and following the instructions to schedule their test.

The website US Department of States - Careers Representing America provides a wealth of other helpful information. Test seats must be scheduled by Friday, January 28, 2011, and seats may be scheduled only after registration is complete.
